

Pregnitude Canada

in 1966, iain douglas-hamilton, an oxford-educated scottish zoologist, set up a field camp by tanzania's lake manyara and spent the next four years observing 500 elephants at close quarters pregnitude in canada

big thank you to the sunderland family again for the updates

pregnitude canada